FAMOUS EDINBURGH

KENYA

A Ceylon based tea, light, bright and refreshing with a full currant character. The Kenyan teas in the blend give a brightness to produce a balance refreshing cup. This tea was first blended in the 1930's and is the perfect accompaniment for scones.

EARL GREY CHINA

It's a blend of fine black China teas delicately scented with the Oil of Bergamot; a citrus fruit akin to the lime. A very refreshing brew with a hint of sharpness that can be taken with or without milk.

DARJEELING INDIA

Often described as the champagne of teas grown in North India in the foothills of the Himalayas. This tea offers a distinctive character with astringency and hints of almonds. Penetrating yet delicate and fresh.

LAPSANG SOUCHONG

CHINA

This large leafed tea is grown in the Fukien province of china and has a powerful smoky aroma. There is no grey area with this tea, you love it or loathe it.

JAPANESE CHERRY JAPAN

With subtle flavours of Japanese cherry is delicately balanced with this green tea, both flavoursome and aromatic.

PEPPERMINT CUT

UNITED KINGDOM

Fresh high-quality peppermint that clams and soothes.

ROOIBOS SOUTH AFRICA

Incredibly smooth and gentle with a natural sweetness and slightly nutty taste. When brewed for longer, rooibos is full-bodied and rich, and you can smell the warm woody notes rising from your cup or teapot.
